LIFE EVENT

On one occasion, Lluís and Manel went on a trip to

In short, they went out to enjoy each other's company and contemplate nature.

As they were walking, they argued and Manuel hit Luis; Luis did nothing, he just wrote in the dust of the ground: Today, my friend hit me! The action caught Manolo's attention, but he said nothing.

They continued on their way, walking, singing, playing... they found an inviting river and decided to go for a swim. Luis, without a second thought, jumped into the water and found himself in a whirlpool. He was drowning; meanwhile, Manel immediately jumped into the river to save his friend.

Luis, taking a stone in his hands, writes on the rock: Today my best friend
He saved my life!

Manolo observed and said to his friend: when I gave you something you wrote on the ground;

- Now you write about the rock that saved your life, why?

Luis, with a gesture of sincerity and gratitude, replies:

- When you hit me, I wrote this deed in the dust of the earth so that I want the wind to erase it forever. Now that you saved my life, I've written it on the rock because I don't want to ever forget it, and I choose to write this gesture of friendship on the rock of my heart.

It was about four in the afternoon." (Jn 1:35-39).
