

27. The Season of Advent

Come soon, Lord, come, Savior

Prepare for the coming of Jesus by loving and forgiving your family.

LIFE EVENT

Advent is a time of waiting and hope. Each Sunday, another candle on the Advent wreath is lit, and the light grows as joy grows in our hearts.

Families gather to prepare the nativity scene, hang garlands, and share songs. Children open windows on the calendar, discovering little surprises that remind them of the journey to Christmas. It is a time of silence and prayer, filling the heart with joy. Advent invites us to look inward, to be patient, and to wait with confidence. When Christmas arrives, the darkness turns in broad daylight.

WE SHARE:

1. How to prepare for Christmas during these weeks of Advent?
2. What prayers and sacrifices can you make?

THE WORD OF GOD

At that time, Jesus said to his disciples, "Be careful and be

They are cautious because they don't know when the moment will arrive. It will be like a

A man who goes on a trip leaves his house

He takes care of his servants, assigns to each one his task, and recommends that the goalkeeper remain vigilant.

Be on your guard, then, because you do not know when the owner will arrive.

from home: whether at dusk, at midnight, at cockcrow, or in the morning.

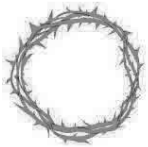

Lest he arrive unexpectedly and find them asleep. And that's saying something.

I say to you, I say to everyone: "Stay awake!" (Mt 13:33-37)

WE FOUND OUT:

1. It seems like it's a threat. Is that so?
2. Is Christianity a burden of problems or is it joy? Explain your answer.

WEEKLY GOAL

We prepare our house with the nativity scene and the Advent wreath.
We've started listening to Christmas carols. You'll find them in the QR code.

